

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1283

Introduced by Assembly Member Smyth

February 27, 2009

An act to amend Section 30330 of the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1283, as introduced, Smyth. California Coastal Commission.

Under existing law, the California Coastal Commission has the primary responsibility for the implementation of the provisions of the California Coastal Act, unless otherwise specified, and is designated as the state coastal zone planning and management agency for any and all purposes, and is authorized to exercise any and all powers set forth in the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 or any amendment thereto or any other federal act heretofore or hereafter enacted that relates to the planning or management of the coastal zone.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to these provisions.
